

---

Fwd: [OpenRecords] Request FOIL-2018-056-11620 Closed

Jennifer Granick <jgranick@aclu.org>

Wed, Apr 10, 2019 at 2:08 AM

To: Kara V Brandeisky <kvb238@nyu.edu>, Kristin M Mulvey <kmm991@nyu.edu>, Brett Max Kaufman <bkaufman@aclu.org>

sent to you from the road

---

From: openrecords@records.nyc.gov <openrecords@records.nyc.gov>

Sent: Wednesday, April 3, 2019 6:30:50 AM

To: Jennifer Granick

Subject: [OpenRecords] Request FOIL-2018-056-11620 Closed

The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has closed your FOIL request FOIL-2018-056-11620 for the following reasons:

- In regard to the document(s) which you requested, I must deny access to these records on the basis of Public Officers Law Section 87(2)(f) as such records/information would endanger the life or safety of any person.
- In regard to the document(s) which you requested, I must deny access to these records on the basis of Public Officers Law Section 87(2)(e)(iv) as such information, if disclosed, would reveal non-routine techniques and procedures.
- In regard to the document(s) which you requested, I must deny access to these records on the basis of Public Officers Law Section 87(2)(b) as such information, if disclosed, would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
- I must deny access to the records you requested on the basis of Public Officers Law Section 87(2)(a). These records are sealed under court order, pursuant to Criminal Procedure Law Section 160.50 and can only be requested by the arrested person or their representative.

In order to release these records, this unit must receive a notarized affidavit from the arrested person or their representative within thirty (30) days of the date of this email, addressed to the attention of Detective Halk (646-610-6430), who has been assigned to handle your case. Failure to do so will result in this file being CLOSED.

- In regard to the document(s) which you requested, I must deny access to these records on the basis of Public Officers Law Section 87(2)(e)(i) as such records/information, if disclosed would interfere with law enforcement investigations or judicial proceedings.
- In regard to the document(s) which you requested, I must deny access to these records on the basis of Public Officers Law section 87(2)(g)(iii) as such records/information are inter-agency or intra-agency materials which are not final agency policy or determinations.
- In regard to the document(s) which you have requested, I must deny access to these records on the basis of Public Officers Law section 87(2)(e)(iii) as such records/information, if disclosed, would identify a confidential source or disclose confidential information relating to a criminal investigation.
- In regard to the document(s) which you requested, I must deny access to these records on the basis of Public Officers Law section 87(2)(i), as such records, if disclosed, would jeopardize the capacity of an agency or an entity that has shared information with an agency to guarantee the security of its information technology assets, such assets encompassing both electronic information systems and infrastructures.

You may appeal the decision to deny access to material that was redacted in part or withheld in entirety by contacting the agency's FOIL Appeals Officer: foilappeals@nypd.org within 30 days.

Request Information:

Request Title: Records regarding law enforcement hacking as defined herein

Request Description: See attached file.

DO NOT RESPOND TO THIS EMAIL. For information or questions about this request please use the Contact the Agency link on the request page in OpenRecords.